

Hello, Please do not make these changes. All ready the limits on what we can read and hear are ruining the greatest country on earth. For if we don't have dialogue and varying opinions and outlets we move further away from what America is about.